Gospel Reading

Luke 16:1-13 (shorter form, Luke 16:10-13)

Jesus tells a parable about a dishonest steward who is commended for his prudence; one cannot serve both God and money.

Talk with your children about some things that they have done to show that they can be trusted. Talk a bit about what it means to be responsible.

Responsibility often means that we put aside something of passing value for something of greater value.

Read together the short form of today's Gospel, Luke 16:10-13. Talk about the importance of responsible use of money and our material possessions. As a family, commit to one action that you will take this week to show that your family serves God and not money.

We thank our Very Rev. Fathers John Geig EV, Paul Monkerud EV for confirming our candidates this weekend. Our heartfelt congratulations to all our young people who are confirmed this weekend.

Our appreciation and thanks to Maria Cabiling, Rita Cordina and Teresa Baroni our sacramental team members and all the catechists and parents for their grate help in preparing our young people. Well done all of you!

Fr Sebastian Savarimuthu
