THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:31-34 ( Year B)

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt-
a covenant that they broke,
though I was their husband,
says the Lord.

But this is the covenant
that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord:

I will put my law within them,
and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer shall they teach one another,
or say to each other; "Know the Lord,"
for they shall all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord;
for I will forgive their iniquity,
and remember their sin no more.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 50:3-4, 12-15 (Year B)

R. Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offence.
O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin. R.

A pure heart create for me, O God,
put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your holy spirit. R.

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervour sustain me,
that I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:7-9 (Year B)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

In the days of his flesh,
Jesus offered up prayers and supplications,
with loud cries and tears,
to the one who was able to save him from death,
and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

Although he was a Son,
he learned obedience through what he suffered;
and having been made perfect,
he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 12:26 (Year B)

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!
If you serve me, follow me, says the Lord;
and where I am, my servant will also be.
Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel

John 12:20-30 (Year B)

A reading from the holy gospel according to John

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.

They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee,
and said to him,

"Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

Philip went and told Andrew;

then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

Jesus answered them,

"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

Very truly, I tell you,

unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies,

it remains just a single grain;

but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

Those who love their life lose it,

and those who hate their life in this world
will keep it for eternal life.

"Whoever serves me must follow me,

and where I am, there will my servant be also.

Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.

"Now my soul is troubled.

And what should I say- 'Father, save me from this hour'?

No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.

Father, glorify your name."

Then a voice came from heaven,

"I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder.

Others said, "Angel has spoken to him."

Jesus answered,

"This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

Now is the judgment of this world;

now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

And I, when I am lifted up from the earth,

will draw all people to myself."

Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
